Freight Programs:

Continuum Games freight programs that offer free freight only apply if the invoice is paid on time. Late payments disqualify all free freight offers.

Residential addresses will incur additional shipping fees for each shipment. These fees will not be discounted as part of any free freight program offered by Continuum Games.

All free freight orders or orders shipping on the recipients shipping account are subject to a $5 processing/handling fee. This fee is NOT waived as part of a free freight program.

Orders shipped directly to Amazon are not eligible for any freight saver programs.

Continuum Games will ship backordered items whenever possible but may cancel backorders if the order is of small size (due to freight inefficiency).

Backorders that do not qualify for free freight on their own will NOT receive free freight. If the original order qualifies for free freight, the backorder will ship free if it contains $100 dollars of freight saver items.
